
Salon duc Tape – Fort Collins Minimum Wage – March 11th, 2022

What can be done to increase the minimum wage in Fort Collins?

At the salon on Friday, March 11th, Emily Gallichote, Anthony Asuega, Kaori Keyser and Larson Ross of Democratic Socialists of America Fort Collins will discuss the history of the minimum wage, the minimum wage in Colorado (including Denver's recent increase to over $15 per hour), the cost of living in Fort Collins, and actions City Council could take to address the problem of unlivable wages in Fort Collins. They will also pose and discuss some frequently asked question regarding the minimum wage, as well as some questions around the morality of paying people less than a livable wage.

Anthony is the Co-Chair of the Elections Committee for DSA Fort Collins and a graduate worker in the Department of Mechanical Engineering at Colorado State University. Emily is co-chair of the Medicare for all Committee for DSA Fort Collins and a research scientist at CSU. We'll learn more about Kaori and Larson at the salon!

Salon duc Tape, a public forum sponsored by the Northern Colorado Alliance for a Livable Future (NCALF), meets on the 2nd and 4th Fridays of each month from 7:00 — 9:00 p.m. We will continue to meet via Zoom until coronavirus variants no longer pose the serious threat that they do currently. You will need to register in advance for this salon here. After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information – including a new link – about joining the salon.
